'Lasagna' Wins First At Parish Gourmet Dinner

Mrs. E. P. Yoklavich, 2266 238th St., was named "Chef of the Year" at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church on Saturday evening, June 3, at a Gourmet Dinner sponsored by Sacred Heart Guild.

A panel of three judges including Rev. John Hagerty, pastor, Mrs. Charles Lupin, Altar Society president, and William Delaney, Holy Name president, picked Mrs. Yoklavich's Lasagna from nearly 80 entries prepared for the Gourmet Dinner held in the Parish Hall.

Three other chefs were also Mrs. Yoklavich's prize winning Lasagna recipe follows:

- LASAGNA
- 1 onion (chopped)
 - 3 cloves garlic
 - 3 lbs. ground meat
 - 1/2 green bell pepper (chopped)
 - 1/2 tsp. sweet basil
 - 3 bay leaves
 - Parmesan Cheese
 - parsley flakes (pinched and dried)
 - Salt and Pepper
 - 3 cans tomato sauce
 - 2 cans tomato paste
 - 1 No. 2 can tomatoes
 - 2 8 oz. balls Mazzerelli cheese
 - 2 1/2 pts Ricotta cheese
 - 1 1/2 Pkg. lasagna

Saute onion and garlic in large skillet until partly cooked but not brown. Add meat and cook until red color disappears. Add bell pepper, spices, tomato paste, tomato sauce and tomatoes. Simmer for two hours. Add about a glass of water during cooking to make up for liquid evaporation. After cooking remove bay leaves and garlic buds.

Cook lasagna noodles according to directions on package. Cut up mazzereilli cheese into small cubes. Layer the noodles, sauce, ricotta and mazzereilli in a large baking pan or casserole dish; starting with noodles and ending with sauce on top. Sprinkle generously with grated Parmesan cheese. Bake in 375° degree oven for about 1 hour or until Lasagna bubbles.

Team Entertains Wives at Dinner

Knights of Columbus Bowling team entertained their wives at a dinner at the Palms restaurant on a recent Saturday evening.

Enjoying the affair were Messrs. and Mmes. Raoul Monroy, Jack Breslin, Joseph Pyatt, John Jansee, Ken Cunningham all of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Conroy of Redondo Beach.

Hostesses To Jesterettes

Mrs. Fay Parks and Mrs. Olive Wittenburg were hostesses at the dinner meeting of the Maub Ives Jesterettes Wednesday evening. The group had dinner at the Palms and then went to the Parks home for a business meeting followed by cards.

Others from Torrance attending were Mrs. Mae Jones and Mrs. Rolive Bever.

Maternity Tea Given By Auxiliary

Little Company of Mary Hospital auxiliary recently entertained with another elaborate maternity tea for one hundred guests in the tea-room of The Little Company of Mary Hospital in Torrance.

The long tea-table was beautifully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Victor Binstead, flower chairman, who arranged an unusually lovely centerpiece of large pink peonies which blended with the tall pale lavender candles in the silver candelabra. An exquisite Pointe Venise cloth was used which proved to be a perfect foil for the handsome silver tea service which the Auxiliary had recently presented to the Sisters.

Mrs. Raymond L. Reed was chairman of the tea and assisting her was Mrs. Frank M. Forester, president of the Auxiliary, who poured during the afternoon.

Committee members were Mmes Robert Cooper, George Owens, Donald Puhl, Theodore McNeer, Fred Brierley, Woodrow Putnam. After tea was served, Sister Angela, who is in charge of the maternity floor gave an interesting talk to the guests, followed by a short motion picture. The pleasant afternoon ended with a tour of the maternity floor and the modern nursery.

Club Hostess

Mrs. R. J. Triplitt was hostess to her club at a dessert bridge last Tuesday afternoon at her home, 3236 Eldorado Ave.

At the close of the games, Mrs. Douglas Baldwin held high score, Mrs. Jack Brooks, second and Mrs. Jack Day, third.

Mrs. Triplitt's guests were Mmes. Henry Backlund, Douglas Baldwin, Jack Day, Jack Brooks, C. M. Blakley, R. K. Petrat, C. T. Rippey, Jr., and L. Voien.

Mrs. Backlund will be hostess to the club at its next meeting on June 20.

COED HONORED... Paula Harter (left), South High junior, was selected to represent her school in the 18th annual Girls State session at the University of California at Davis, June 26 through July 4. Miss Harter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harter, received the honor from Mrs. Sam Mayer, representing the Lomita American Legion Auxiliary.

Area Council Hostess To Beta Sigma Affair

South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority was hostess for a breakfast meeting of the Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi at the Thunderbird International Hotel in El Segundo recently.

Honored guests of the Council were Mrs. Katharin Hammergrin, Society Editor of the Gardena Valley News and Mrs. Charles Mel-Lodge, sponsor of the Council.

Mrs. Lola Abrams, president of the South Bay Area Council, gave the invocation and welcome address to the 721 members and guests attending the breakfast. 134 chapters of the sorority and 48 cities in Southern California were represented.

Mrs. Robert Marble, chairman of the breakfast, chose an American Indian theme for the decorations. This theme was carried out in the invitations, table decorations, program covers and name tags. Mrs. Marble was assisted by all members of the seven chapters of the council.

Mrs. William Schroeder, reservations chairman, handled all reservations for the breakfast.

Mrs. R. S. Madison, sponsor, installed the newly elected officers of the Southern California Council.

It was announced that $4,429.00 had been donated to Cystic Fibrosis by the Southern California members this year. Cystic Fibrosis is the State project of the sorority and over $10,000 has been donated by all members in the State of California this year.

The next breakfast meeting will be held at the Ambassador Hotel Coconut Grove on July 18. Whittier Area Council will hostess the meeting.

Song Writers' Party Saturday

Vel-de-Nez Song Writers' club of Lomita will hold an autographing party at the American Legion hall, 24762 Narbonne Ave. in Lomita, Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. The affair will celebrate the 20 top tunes released during 1960.

Many recording stars will be on hand for this party. Henry Weaver, Sr., publicity chairman, has stated that the annual picnic for the club will be discussed at this time.

Song writers of the Harbor area are invited to attend. There will be refreshments and door prizes.
